

The Snake Charmer - Ian Luther

In a back street in old Bombay
Where people slither and shake
To the music of the piper
Performing with his dancing snake

I'll hypnotise you, mesmerise you
And summon up the fires of hell
I'll mystify you, tantalise you
To bring you back under my spell
Of the snake charmer

Like a serpent I'll slide all over
And wrap myself around you
Squeezing tighter until you surrender
And do anything I want you to do

I'll hypnotise you, mesmerise you
And summon up the fires of hell
I'll mystify you, tantalise you
To bring you back under my spell
Of the snake charmer
The snake charmer
The snake charmer
The snake charmer

Let's do the snake

Swaying together entwined forever
As lovers that sliver and shake
To the music of the piper
Performing with his dancing snake

I'll hypnotise you, mesmerise you
And summon up the fires of hell
I'll mystify you, tantalise you
To bring you back under my spell
Of the snake charmer
